

John Swett High School Learning Opportunities while school is out

- Do any work that your teachers assigned previously
- Khan Academy for math www.khanacademy.org
- Read 30 minutes daily
- Duolingo for Spanish classes
- Continue to do Cyber High or Odysseyware if you're already have a log in
- Look over your old notes and review them
- Go over old tests and correct them
- Go onto www.collegeboard.org to do practice AP tests, SATs, ACTS, and college planning
- Seniors continue to complete scholarship letters and email Ms. Murillo for other scholarship opportunities
- Watch Ted Talks and reflect on great ideas www.ted.talks.com
- Check your Google classrooms for any assignments from your teachers
- Watch a free Metropolitan Opera www.metopera.org
- Free online courses at Scholastic www.scholastic.com
- Take an Ivy League (Brown, Dartmouth, Cornell, Columbia, Harvard, Yale, Penn, and Princeton) college course online for free www.classcentral.com
- Play games with siblings and family members
- Stay active, walk and get some exercise